Anjali Kulthe, the nurse who rescued several people during the dreadful Mumbai 26/11 Terror Attacks. She was working the night shift in the Antenatal Care Unit at the Cama and Albless Hospital for Women and Children on 26th November 2008. 20 pregnant women were under her charge that night. Whilst preparing for an emergency. She heard gunshots being fired at around 10:30 pm from behind the hospital. She witnessed Kasab and another terrorist attack the hospital and murder the guards. Though extremely scared, she gathered courage, rushed to the first floor, closed the main iron door and shifted all the patients to the pantry with the help of another staff. She locked the door and switched off the lights so that the shooters could not see the patients. At all costs, her only aim was to protect the patients and she did it. We salute her!

COM. PRABHAT KAR

Born : 13-10-1910 - Died : 27-11-1984

General Secretary, AIBEA : 1953 to 1980

Member of Parliament : 1957 to 1967

President AIBEA : 1980 to 1984

Com. Prabhat Kar was the architect of AIBEA, with the characteristic courage of his convictions and vision, Com. Prabhat Kar, along with a group of young, angry but dedicated comrades took the historic decision on 9th April, 1941 to form an all India organisation for bank employees and on 20th April, 1946 this vision stood translated into reality with the formation of AIBEA afterwhich Com. Prabhat Kar started a ceaseless and unremitting struggle to unify all banks employees under a single banner with a slogan "One industry, one union".

Com. Prabhat Kar built AIBEA into a formidable organisation because of which the Bank Employees could come out of the phase of tribunalisation and third party intervention and sign the historic first industry level Bipartite Settlement in 1966. AIBEA is the only union to have signed all 11 Bipartite Settlements.

AIBEA, under the leadership of Com. Prabhat Kar, relentlessly campaigned for nationalization of major Banks which was achieved in July 1969.

We dedicate the 11th Bipartite Settlement to Com. Prabhat Kar.

COM. H L PARVANA
Born : 3-11-1923 -
Died : 18-4-1975

Along with the doyen Com. Prabhat Kar, Com. H L Parvana was the architect of AIBEA. Com. Parvana was the centre of activities of the Bank employees' movement in and around Delhi and was responsible in forming Trade Unions in different Banks during the 1950s. Com. Parvana was always known for his hard work. Whether it was the fight before the Sastri and Desai Tribunals in 1950s and 60s, whether it was the fight to achieve Bipartite Settlement in 1965-66 or the sustained struggle for nationalisation of Banks from 1960, Com. Parvana was straining every nerve to gear up the rank and file to back up the organisation's demands for their eventual accomplishment.

In Com. Prabhat Kar's words :

He was the life and soul of the AIBEA centre. His dedication to the cause and thoroughness of minutest details are unparalleled. In every dimension of work of AIBEA, he was indispensable. In movement, in agitation, in campaign, in negotiations, in settling differences and solving problems his unique contribution was visible.

As an agitator, organiser, as a leader conversant with every sphere of Trade Union movement, his imprint was distinct. He was a comrade with clarity, with vision and a comrade who never knew tiredness. It is almost impossible to think of Central Office of AIBEA minus Com. Parvana.

His amiable disposition brought everybody near him and he became the closest friend, philosopher and guide of each and every bank employee. He was a man of the masses. He was a man of the Trade Union movement. He was a leader of the working class. He was a comrade who cannot be replaced. The movement is indebted to him which cannot be repaid.

अरमान

है शौक यही, अरमान यही
हम कुछ करके दिखलाएँगे,
मरने वाली दुनिया में हम
अमरों में नाम लिखाएँगे।
जो लोग गरीब भिखारी हैं
जिन पर न किसी की छाया है,
हम उनको गले लगाएँगे
हम उनको गले लगाएँगे
हम उनको सुखी बनाएँगे।
जो लोग अँधेरे घर में हैं
अपनी ही नहीं नजर में हैं,
हम उनके कोने कोने में
उद्यम का दीप जलाएँगे।
उम्मीद मारकर बैठे हैं,
हम उनके बुझे
फिर से उत्साह जगाएँगे।
रोको मत, आगे बढ़ने दो
आजादी के दीवाने हैं,
हम मातृभूमि की सेवा में
अपना सर्वस्व लगाएँगे।
हम उन वीरों के बच्चे हैं
जो धुन के पक्के - सच्चे थे,
हम उनका मान बढ़ायेंगे
हम जग में नाम कमाएँगे।

Dear Life,

Just Patty

If you want me to bow,
I will stand up straight.
You can knock me down today
But I will stand up tomorrow

If you want me to cry
I will gladly smile
I will laugh every day
And I will keep doing that until I die

If you want me to hate
I will share love
Depending on free will
And not just fate

If you want me to give up
I will struggle through
Continue fighting my battles
And I will never stop

If you want me to walk away
I will be going nowhere
You can push me over the edge
I will just climb up another way

If you want to break me
I will stay strong
Because I am able
To still see the beauty

So dear Life, can't you see?
I am still a Warrior
And there is no way you can ever defeat me!
